

South Africa: Flood

Country and District	Republic of South Africa	32 dead [※]
	Northeastern region: part of KwaZulu-Natal province, eastern part of North West province, Limpopo province, Mpumalanga province, Gauteng province
Duration	Early Mar 2014 -	(unknown) missing [※]
Outline	Continuous heavy rains since early March caused floods in the northeastern region. It claimed 32 lives and damaged infrastructures such as roads and bridges.

※Reported on 17 Mar 2014

Photo 1

Limpopo, March 12 - Despite seven of the Vaal Dam's sluice gates having been opened, areas around the Vaal river are still flooding. Picture: eNCA

Source <http://www.enca.com/south-africa/bodies-still-missing-floods-calm-down>

Photo 2

Hundreds Displaced in South Africa Floods
Photo: Urban Gateway

Source <http://floodlist.com/africa/displaced-south-africa-floods>

Photo 3

Source <http://ewn.co.za/2014/03/10/Heavy-rainfall-highly-unusual>

Major roads around Johannesburg were closed following heavy rain in Gauteng over the past two weeks. Picture: Angelo Tyler/iWitness.

Photo 4

Source <http://ewn.co.za/2014/03/10/Heavy-rainfall-highly-unusual>

Major roads around Johannesburg were closed following heavy rain in Gauteng over the past two weeks. Picture: Angelo Tyler/iWitness.

Photo 5

Source <http://ewn.co.za/2014/03/10/Heavy-rainfall-highly-unusual>

Holiday makers at Klein Kariba were stranded as roads and rivers flooded after heavy rains. Picture: Gregg Kleynhans/IWN.

Photo 6

A helicopter rescues several men from rising water caused by floods. Picture: ER24

Source <http://www.enca.com/south-africa/residents-trapped-floods-airlifted-safety-limpopo>